

The Field:

- Dimensions: The field of play shall be rectangular, 60x40, with its length no more than 55-65 yards. The width must be no more than 35-45yards. The length in all cases shall exceed the width.
- Markings shall be:
 1. Distinctive lines not more than 4 (four) inches wide.
 2. A halfway line shall be marked out across the field.
 3. A center circle with a four yard radius.
 4. A “build-out line” equidistant from the top of the penalty box and the halfway line.
 5. Four corner arcs with a three foot radius.
 6. Goal area: four yards from each goal post and four yards into the field of play, joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal line.
 7. Penalty area: eight yards from each goal post and ten yards parallel with the goal line.
 8. Goals shall be seven feet high and twenty-one feet wide.

The Ball:

- Size four.

Number of Players:

- Maximum number of players on the field at any one time is 7, one of whom must be a goalkeeper.
- Maximum number of players on the roster cannot exceed 14.
- Minimum players to start a game is 5.
- Substitutions:
 1. Prior to a throw-in and/or goal kick by either team.
 2. On any dead ball at the referee’s discretion.
 3. After a goal, by either team.
 4. After an injury, by either team, when the referee stops the play.
 5. At half time.

Player Equipment:

- A player may not wear anything that is dangerous to themselves or others including any kind of jewelry.
- Basic equipment includes a uniform, shin guards, and tennis shoes or cleated soccer shoes.

Referee:

- One Registered Referee.

Duration of the Game:

- The game shall be divided into equal halves of 25 minutes each.
- No extra time should be added to a league game.

Start or Restart of the Game:

- Both teams must be on their half of the field to begin the game, except the player taking the kickoff.
- A kick-off is a direct kick, used to start a game or second half, or after a goal is scored.
- A kicker who touches the ball first during the kick-off may not touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.
- Opponent must be five yards from the center mark while the kick off is in progress.

Ball In and Out Of Play:

- The ball is out of play if it completely crosses the goal end line or touch line, or if the referee stops the play.
- The ball is in play all other times when remaining in the field of play

Method of Scoring:

- A goal is scored when the whole ball passes over the goal line, between the goalposts and under the crossbar.
- The team with the most goals wins. A typing score ends in a draw.

Off-Side:

- An offside position is if he/she is closer to their opponent’s goal than both the ball and the second last opponent.
- A player is ruled offside if at the moment the ball is touched or played by one of their teammates, he/she is involved in the play by interfering with the play, interfering with the opponent, or gaining an advantage by being in that position.
- A play is not offside if he/she is on their own defensive half of the field or level with the second last opponent, or level with the last two opponents or behind the ball.
- There is no offside on a goal kick, throw-in, or corner kick.
- In the case of an offside call, the opposing team receives an indirect kick from where the infringement occurred.

Misconduct:

- Only a player, substitute or coach may be shown a red or yellow card.
- A player, substitute or coach is cautioned and shown a yellow card if he/she is guilty of unsporting behavior, shows dissent by word or action, persistently infringes the laws of the game, delays the restart of a game, fails to respect the required distance when play is restarted, enters or re-enters the game without the referees approval, or deliberately leaves the field without the referees approval.
- A player, substitute or coach is sent off and shown a red card if he/she is guilty of a serious foul play, guilty of violent conduct, spits at an opponent or any other person, denies the opposing team an obvious goal scoring opportunity by deliberately handballing the ball or by an offense punishable to a free kick or penalty kick, uses offensive, insulting, or abusive language or gestures, or if a player receives a second caution in the same match.
- In the event of a red card, the player, substitute or coach must leave the vicinity of the field of play and the technical area.

Free Kicks:

- A player may receive either a direct or indirect kick and must be taken where the foul occurred. The ball must be stationary, and the player cannot touch the ball twice in a row without another player touching the ball.
- In the case of either a direct or indirect kick, the opposing team must stand at least five yards away from the ball.
- If the infraction occurs within the build out line to the goal line, all opposing players will stand behind the build out line or 10 yards away from the ball, whichever is further.
- A direct kick is awarded to the opposing team if a player commits a careless, reckless act, or uses excessive force.
- A direct kick is put into play once one player touches the ball.
- An indirect kick cannot be scored unless two players touch the ball before entering the goal or if the ball goes out of play.
- If a referee determines that a player has intentionally kicked the ball back to the goalkeeper, who handles the ball with their hands, it is a foul and result in an indirect free kick, as the spot of the foul (unless in the penalty area- the ball is then placed outside the box)

Penalty Kicks:

- A penalty kick is awarded to a team if a player on the opposing team commits a foul worthy of a direct kick in their own defensive box.
- A penalty kick is a direct kick with all players, with the exception of the goalie, standing outside the box and five yards away from the player who is kicking the ball.
- The penalty kick is taken halfway between the goalie box and the penalty box.
- The defending goalie must remain on the goal line, and between the goalposts until the ball is kicked.
- A player taking the penalty kick cannot kick the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.

Throw-in:

- A throw-in is awarded if the ball passes over the touch lines on either side of the field. The throw must be taken from where the ball went out of play and is taken by the team in which their opponents touched the ball last before going out of play.
- A throw must be taken facing the field, part of each foot on the ground, outside the touch line, using both hands, and delivering the ball over and directly behind their head.
- A same player throwing the ball in play cannot touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.
- A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw-in.

Indirect Kick:

- Any purposeful header within the game shall result in an indirect kick from the spot of the infraction. If the header is in the box it will result in an indirect free kick, just outside of the box.

Goalie Punts and Drop Kicks:

- Goal keepers are no longer allowed to punt or drop kick at the U10 or younger level.
- The opposing team must retreat behind the build-out line once the goal keeper has possession of the ball in his or her hands. The opposing team must remain behind the build-out line until the ball is played from the goal keeper from a throw, roll, or kick.
- Six second time limit to release ball or go behind build out line.

Goal Kick:

- A goal kick is awarded if the ball, having last touched by the opposing team, passes over the goal line with the exception of if a goal is scored.
- A goal kick is taken within the goal area by a player or goalie of the defending team.
- Opponents must remain behind the build out line until the ball is in played.

- A player taking the goal kick cannot touch the ball a second time until it is touched by another player.

Corner Kick:

- A corner kick is awarded when the whole ball, having last been touched by the defending team, passes over the goal line and a goal is not scored.
- The ball is placed next to the nearest corner flag without removing the flag and is kicked by a player on the attacking team.
- Opponents must remain ten yards away from the ball until it is in play.
- A ball is in play once it is kicked or moved, and the player taking the corner kick may not touch the ball a second time until another player touches the ball.

Sliding and Slide Tackling:

- Sliding and slide tackling is a part of the game and is permitted. FIFA Laws do not prohibit slide tackling. The laws of the game describe fouls that include tripping, kicking, and dangerous play. Careless or reckless tackling of the body, will result in a foul and possible issuance of a yellow or red card.
